

Allen J Gula, Jr

Chairman, The Marilyn B. Gula Mountains of Hope Foundation

Al is an accomplished financial services professional, having accumulated over 30 years experience in the US and global financial services industry. He has held executive positions in e-commerce, payments, technology, operations, strategic business planning and mergers and acquisitions integration.

Most recently, Al is a senior executive at Greater Bay Bancorp, one of the Bay area's largest independent bank holding companies, as well as a consultant and board member to several privately held companies, where he assists with strategic development, operational scalability and financing.

Prior to Greater Bay Bancorp, Al was Co-President at Franklin Resources, a $650 billion+ global asset management company, Executive VP at KeyCorp, Chairman and CEO of Key Services Corporation, and a board member at KeyBank N.A., KeyBank USA, Electronic Payment Services, Inktomi and MasterCard USA.

Together with his late wife, Lynn, Al founded The Marilyn B. Gula Mountains of Hope Foundation (www.mountainsofhopefoundation.org), a non-profit foundation dedicated to funding the diagnosis and treatment of advanced breast cancer research.

Al received an MBA in Management from Case Western Reserve University.