

Ohio Governor Strickland expressed enthusiasm and support for the work of the Attevo team in building jobs and a successful organization in a tough economic environment.

Cleveland, Ohio – 11 June, 2009

Governor Ted Strickland (D-Ohio) took time from his busy schedule to meet with the Attevo management team this afternoon. He expressed enthusiasm and support for the work of Attevo in creating jobs and building a successful organization in a tough economic environment. " Said Strickland, "Ohio is going through a difficult time right now. It is one of my responsibilities to encourage people to position their organizations to take advantage of the economic recovery when it arrives, rather than making short-term decisions that will cripple our future growth. I am encouraged by your success and congratulate you on your efforts." Dave Snyder, Chairman and CEO of Attevo, has just completed the acquisition of two consulting organizations and gathered his management team from locations around the world for a planning session at the Cleveland headquarters.
