

Attevo expands global ECM team

Attevo welcomes Rachel Pollock as Director in charge of the global Enterprise Content Management (ECM) practice

April 2007

Rachel is responsible for business development, program management, client service and quality assurance as well as the development and management of partnerships.

Rachel has extensive business and technology consulting experience and has held senior positions in professional services at Open Text, Hummingbird, Computer Associates and Realogic.

Rachel will be joined by Emmanuel Igbinedion, Matt Eustace and Alan Schofield – all senior consultants and specialists in the delivery of ECM solutions.

The Attevo ECM practice provides skills and resources to both software vendor and client communities to meet business requirements and implement successful ECM solutions.

Technology areas covered include capture of structured and unstructured data, document and records management, web content management, secure document collaboration plus BPM, workflow and business process change. Attevo's ECM Solution focus includes Enterprise Contracts Management and solutions for the construction and financial sectors.
